GAMES, ENTERTAINMENTS AND DINNERS TO BE GIVEN IN THE CITY - MANY POOR PEOPLE TO BE MADE HAPPY.

"You never know how many New-England people there are in New-York until it comes Thanks-giving Day." said an employe in the office of one of the great transportation companies by which thousands went away yesterday to spend Thanks

There are great numbers of people to who Thanksgiving Day is nothing more than an excuse for a half holiday, a day of turkey, railles, good things to est and to drink. To others, who view the day from its religious point of view, it is one of real thanksgiving, and from these, both in the of worship and at the plentifully supplied poard, arise the words "Praise God from whom all

"LUCIA" AT THE OPERA.

"Lucia di Lammermoor" was given at the Metro- | NO MONEY IN THE BUSINESS AT PRESENT RATES, politan Opera House last night. It was a return, the first this season, to the amiable old hurdygurdy Italian list, and the consequences were wha the performances of last year might have taught the management to expect- large falling off in the attendance and a performance which warmed the hearts of only a few devotees of the barrei-Yet Messes. Abbey & Grau disclosed a disposition to be generous, for they associated Sig-nor Tamagno with Mme. Melba, and thus furnished a test of the attractive power of these two large magnets. But the opera was against them choice of Signor Tamagno for the part of merits as a dramatic singer has a chance for exconceived for singers, pure and simple, not for In vociferous declamation. In a rôle like Othello and the intensity of his acting, the virility of his singing and the dramatic truthfulness and forcethe disagreeable quality which he so often forces into his voice. But in the melodies of Donizetti euphony is of the first importance, and that Signor Tamagno is less willing to give, perhaps, than he is able. Mme. Melba was admirable enough in the titular rôle, but the occasional scantiness of breath, which has marred her phrasing of late, was again noticeable, especially in the first act. Her singing of the mad scene, however, had an electrifying effect. Signor Bensaude was the Eurico of the occasion, but his voice is small for an audience-roem like that of the Metropolitan. Of the others in the cast nothing need be said. The management of the opera has made official announcement of the Saturday night representations must have been projected. They will be ten in number, beginning on December 8, and the prices will range from $2.50 for the best seats, to 50 cents for admission to the family circle. Subscribers to the regular season desirous of retaining their seats for these performances can do so by applying at the box office on or before next Saturday evening. The regular sale will begin next Monday.

THE PRESIDENT AND CURRENCY REFORM.

IT GETS A BLACK EYE IN THE BEGINNING. From The Boston Journal. More hopefulness would be felt regarding the forthcoming currency scheme of the Administration if the President had not incautiously announced that it is Secretary Carlisle's own.

WILL BE A SHOCK TO DEMOCRACY.

From The Newark Advertiser.

This plan, proposed by a Democratic President, and made in its substance a part of the policy of his Administration, will force the Democracy to an abandonment of their historic principles or a reorganization upon the lines of adherence to those principles. The coming session will see the beginning, if not, indeed, the accomplishment of this reorganization. From The Newark Advertiser.

HOW TO KEEP OUT OF TROUBLE. From The Chicago Times. It is our own opinion that the more President Cleveland avoids the so-called "Baltimore plan" of currency reorganization in his recommendations to Congress the more he will keep out of trouble. The people are not quite ready to concede to the banks that power to issue "flat" money which they have persistently denied to the Federal Government.

A CHANGE NEEDED. From The Cincinnati Tribune. Whatever plan may be adopted, it is evident the country is ripe for and needs a change in its currency system. But to make the change politics must be put aside, and the whole matter considered in a broad, statesmanlike and patriotic way. NOT A SUBJECT FOR THE SHORT SESSION.

From The Chicago Tribune. This important subject will hardly be seriously discussed by Congress during the ensuing short

NO COMMISSION WANTED.

From The Utica Herald.

The outcome of Mr. Cleveland's efforts, in his forthcoming message, to project a financial system upon the country will be a recommendation that a commission be appointed to consider the subject. The present Congress will not consent to the appointment of a commission by the President. The silver Democrats will not trust him, and it is not likely Mr. Cleveland will consent to Congress naming Commissioners.

Here is the interview:
The sugar business has been bad for some months past. We have been hoping against hope all alons, and tried to weather through the period of depression, trusting that business might improve and that we would soon be able to run our works to their fullest capacity, but everything was against us. The reaction that followed the passage of the Tariff bill brought about a dull season, and the war among the wholesale grocers in several sections of the country still further tended to demoralize trade, when to this was added the excitement of an election canvass and the general report that Congress would pass a Free Sugar bill, making all sugars free, you can readily see that there were enough

We cannot do anything else. We are sorry for our men, and have been trying to ward off the blow all along. But the truth is, we have been running our works at a loss for several months past. And it's time to call quits now.

The last Congress is responsible for the present situation, and if they pass the Free Sugar bill at Washington, as it is reported that they will, they will kill the sugar industry completely. Things cannot be much worse than they are now. There is very little difference between the prices of raw and refined sugar, and there is no reason or justice in continuing a business at a heavy loss.

We must either have enough profit to cover the bad expenses of carrying on sugar refining or else go out of the business completely. We cannot compete with the wages paid in Europe, and our men families at such figures. And yet we are asked to run our establishments with only the margin in refining that is to be found between the cost of raws and refined sugar, which is now a trifle less tran half a cent a pound.

EX-GOVERNOR BOWIE DYING.

Baltimore, Nov. 28.-Ex-Governor Oden Bowle's condition to-day is considered critical. The para-lytic attack of Monday night is of a very serious character, his right side being completely paralyzed. It is the belief of his physicians that death is only question of a few hours.

Ex-Governor Bowie is sixty-eight years of age having been born in Prince George's County, Md., on November 10, 1826. He was educated in Baltimore, and became a farmer. He was a Captain in the Mexican War. He served in the Senate Assembly of Maryland, and was Governor of the State from 1867 to 1871.

He has been president of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company and the Baltimore City Passenger Railway Company for many years. SENATOR MORGAN RE-ELECTED.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 28.-The two houses of Assembly balloted separately yesterday for Senator. Morgan received twenty-three in the Senate and sixty-one in the House, while Reese, Populist, received nine in the Senate and thirty-three in the use. To-day the two branches met together and canvassed the vote of yesterday, and declared Morgan re-elected. This is his fourth term, and extends from March, 1856. He made his speech of acceptance when nominated by the Democratic caucus a week ago, and is not here to-day.

THE VOTE IN BROOKLYN ON CONSOLIDA-TION.

The official vote on the question of consolidation is now completed, save in half a dozen election districts, where the returns have been sent back to the canvassers for correction. As footed up with-out these districts, the result shows that 127,170 votes were cast, of which 65,05 were for consolida-tion and 62,115 against it, making the majority in favor of the scheme 2,90.

MR. MORTON'S STAFF APPOINTMENTS. RUMORS THAT EX-CONGRESSMAN WALLACE, OF BROOKLYN, WILL BE MADE JUDGE-ADVO-CATE-GENERAL.

For several days there have been surface indications which were said to point to the selection General on the military staff of Governor Morton, but from excellent authority it was learned last evening that these indications were misleading. In-stead of the place coming to New-York it is now believed that a prominent citizen and ex-Congressman of Brooklyn has been selected by Mr. ceived the offer of the place is William Copeland Wallace, who represented the HIId Congress District of this State in the National House of Representatives in the List Congress.

Mr. Wallace is a son of William H. Wallace, senior member of the firm of William H. Wallace Co., iron and steel merchants, Nos. 64-68 Broadway. He was born in Brooklyn, and was prepared for college at the Adelphi Academy of that city. dictown, Conn., from which he was glabilated to 1876. From the university he went at once to the Columbia College Law School and on receiving his diploma and being admitted to the bar he began to practice, taking a place in the office of Stewart L. Woodford, then United States District-Attorney for the Southern District of New-York. When Mr. Woodford retired from the public service Mr. Wallace became his partner, and is now a member of the firm of Arnoux, Ritch & Woodford, No. 18 Wall-st., this city, In 1883 Mr. Wallace was nominated by the Republicans of the Hid District, Brooklyn, for Congress, and was elected over William J. Coombs Democrat. Two years later he was defeated by Mr. Coombs by a small majority. Mr. Wallace has continued to be active and prominent in the Republican politics of Kings County and of the State. He was one of the organizers of the Young Republican Club. He was also the first president of the Oxford Club, one of the most noted social organizations of Brooklyn.

The Judge-Advocate-General of the National Guard ranks as a Brigadier-General, but is without salary. The present Judge-Advocate-General is Almet F. Jenks, ex-Corporation Counsel of Brooklyn, who was appointed by Governor Hill October 1, 1890.

Friends of Colonel Charles N. Swift said yesterday that he stood a good chance of being made Chief of Ordance. The Colonel is well known in 1876. From the university he went at once to the was full of fun and jollity last evening. It was the night of the usual smoking concert, a permanent feature of the club, and it was well attended. The Glee Club of the Anti-Machine Republicans of the Vth Assembly District furnished the music, with the assistance of several amateur performers of other districts. The songs and recitations were of excellent quality and good cheer was abundant Henry Clay Piercy, chairman of the Executive Committee, was in general charge of the enter-tainment, and was ably seconded in his efforts by William F. Daly, William H. Huber, Major Charles H. Southworth, Leon Cohen and other well-known Anti-Machine leaders.

FORGED CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER'S NAME. A WARRANT FOR J. M. AUBREY, WHO ELOPED

WITH A DAUGRTER OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE. Chicago, Nov. 28.-A warrant was issued yester-Matthew Aubrey, the youth who, about five years ago, eloped with the daughter of Chief Justice Fuller. The specific charge on which the arrest was ordered was for forging the name of Melville W. Fuller to a check for $50 on the Atlas National Bank, but it is known that there are several other against the young man, amounting in the aggregate emplaint of Arthur F. Greene, a bookkeeper for have been ten similarly foot to the bank during the past few months, but in every case the attempt, if an attempt was made, to imitate the signature of Justice Fuller was crude in the extreme. In no case was there the least difficulty in arriving at the conclusion that the checks were forgeries, and the bank paid no money on them. The only persons who will be losers are the men, presumably personal friends of the alleged forger, who cashed the checks for him. Neither will the banks which handled the forged checks previous to the time they were presented at the Atlas National Bank be losers, as they simply accepted the checks in deposit and paid no money on them. It was about the years ago that J. "Mat" Aubrey created one of the biggest sensations of the day by eloping to Milwaukee with the daughter of Chief Justice Fuller and marrying her. The couple did not live happily together for any length of time. During the last two years they have been living entirely apart, and the wife has recently instituted proceedings for an absolute divorce.

OBITUARY.

EDOUARD THIERRY. Paris, Nov. 28 .- Edouard Thierry died to-day.

He was born in Paris on September 14, 1813, and was the son of a pharmacist well known for his scientific labors. His brother, Joseph Thierry, was a distinguished landscape painter. At the age of twenty years Edouard Thierry published a volume of poems under the title of "Les Enfants et les Anges." In 1825 he began to occupy himself with dramatic criticism in the "Revue de la Théâtre," which he afterward carried on for many years in a large number of other journals. In 1859 M. Thierry was made director of the Comédie Francaise, which post he occupied for twelve years with great distinction. His incumbency was with great distinction. His incumbency was marked by the production of many important modern plays, among them those of Emil Augier and others, which were of a character more or less foreign at that time to the repertory of the great French theatre. He was also responsible suage production of several of the works of Alfred de Musset, which were not supposed to be adopted for actual representation, and he had the credit of giving Victor Hugo's "Hernani" in 187, one of the greatest literary successes of Paris during the exposition of that year. M. Thierry resigned this post in 1871 and resumed the place formerly held by him of librarian of the Arsenal, from which in turn he retired in 1888. M. Thierry had been an officer of the Legion of Hoore since 1892. He published, besides a great number of articles in the duly press, several books concerning the theatre and theatrical history. stage production of several of the works of Alfred

DR. HULBERT LIKELY TO GO TO CHICAGO The Rev. Dr. Paimer S. Hulbert, associate pastor of the Marble Collegiate Reformed Church, Fifthave, and Twenty-ninth-st., said to a Tribune re-porter last night that he should probably accept the call he has received to the pastorate of the Oak Park Congregational Church, Chicago, Ill. In Oak Park Congregational Church, Chicago, Ill. In view of the fact that the Oak Park Church offers him a handsome parsonage and that living expenses are cheaper there than here, he estimates that he would be $1,500 a year better off in the "Windy City" than in the metropolis.
